Mcewan Fraser Legal is delighted to offer to the market a rare opportunity to acquire a beautiful four-bedroom farmhouse, complete with approximately 18 acres of land. Set in the highly sought-after village of Fintry, Stirlingshire, this property enjoys spectacular views of the surrounding landscape and perfectly combines character, comfort, and versatility.

THE ENTRANCE HALL

The welcoming entrance hallway immediately sets the tone, with a handy boot room adjacent to the front door. The property flows beautifully through to a range of generous and well-proportioned living spaces.

The spacious lounge is a true highlight, featuring panoramic windows, an inset log-burning fire, and stunning views across the gardens and surrounding countryside, an ideal space for both relaxation and entertaining.

THE LOUNGE

THE KITCHEN

The property benefits from a large kitchen diner, fitted with hand built solid oak shaker-style units and complemented by an attractive Aga range cooker, creating a warm and functional heart of the home. A separate pantry/utility room provides excellent additional storage and practicality for everyday living.

Further enhancing the accommodation is a formal dining room, perfect for special occasions and family gatherings, along with a large conservatory that floods the home with natural light and offers wonderful views over the large garden grounds.

THE DINING ROOM & CONSERVATORY

The home offers four large and beautifully proportioned bedrooms, all enjoying peaceful rural outlooks, as well as a study.

THE STUDY

The property is served by beautifully finished and good-sized bathroom and shower rooms. Finished to a high standard and designed for modern family living.

THE SHOWER ROOM

THE BATHROOM

There is also an upstairs office and a large storage room. Double glazing, oil-fired heating and solar panels ensure a warm and comfortable environment throughout the year.

THE OFFICE

Externally, the property is exceptionally well equipped. A large garage, separate workshop and additional potting shed provides excellent storage and workspace, while a summer house, greenhouse, and polytunnel offer fantastic opportunities for gardening, growing, or hobby use. The large L-shaped barn offers multiple opportunities including stabling for equestrian use, an outside gym or the ultimate leisure suite. The summer house/office, with power is situated to the front of the property.

The property is accessed via a private tarmac road leading to a sizable gravelled drive - in and parking area. The surrounding 18 acres of land comprising garden, pasture and woodland provide privacy, space, and endless potential, whether for lifestyle, equestrian, or smallholding purposes, all set against the stunning backdrop of the Fintry countryside.

The property enjoys a strong sense of community while remaining conveniently located for access to Stirling, Glasgow, and beyond. The area is renowned for its natural beauty, outdoor pursuits, and scenic walks. This is a truly unique opportunity for anyone seeking a large family home with land. Early viewing is advised.

THE LOCATION

The beautiful conservation village of Fintry in Stirlingshire is a great place to live. Only 16 miles from Stirling, and 19 miles from Glasgow makes for easy access to a host of amenities. The village itself has a 250-year-old pub, a Primary school and a nursery. Fintry is within the catchment area of Balforn High School, for which a school bus is provided. The village also has a Sports Club, which includes a 4-rink indoor bowling hall, squash club and gym. The natural landscape and surrounding beauty are abundant and offer an altogether more peaceful place to call home.
