DESCRIPTION

This charming, part thatched cottage has undergone a comprehensive schedule of renovation over previous years. The property is approached from a wrought iron gate from Victoria Street and a path leading to the part glazed front door. The kitchen/diner is a fabulous double aspect room with skilling ceiling, granite work top and up stand with a range of both floor and wall mounted solid oak cupboards and drawers, Miele washing machine, fitted 1½ bowl sink and drainer unit with mono bloc taps, fitted Bosch induction hob with extractor above, Viessmann gas boiler, built in Bosch double oven and tiled floor. The bathroom comprises; white suite with vanity wash hand basin, matching low level wc, bath, half tiled walls and heated towel radiator. The sitting room leads off the kitchen and has an open fireplace, under stairs cupboard and a door lead to the stairs rising to the first floor. The study is just off the sitting room and is double aspect with a small fireplace.

On the first floor bedroom one has stairs rising from the ground floor and is double aspect with a Victorian feature fireplace which leads through into bedroom two which is single aspect.

Outside the property is a beautiful and well stocked cottage garden with abundant herbaceous floral borders and a pond enjoying a southerly aspect. A path leads around the property to the front gate. Parking is usually available on the street.
