A particularly attractive, well appointed and well maintained three bedroom dormer residence, situated in a enviable and quiet cul-de-sac position, on this small residential development in the village of Bicton.

The property is thoughtfully arranged with well proportioned rooms and the accommodation provides comfortable and adaptable living, with the potential to use bedrooms as a home office space or guest rooms as required. The property is double glazed and benefits from oil fired central heating and briefly comprises: entrance porch, entrance hall, shower room, ground floor bedroom 3, living room, kitchen/dining room, utility room, conservatory; two bedrooms and bathroom. Garden and spacious driveway to the front; landscaped garden and entertainment areas to the rear.

The property is well placed in a cul-de-sac position. The village provides basic amenities to support daily life including a village shop, petrol station/garage, Bicton primary school and nursery and village hall with the Holy Trinity Church providing a community focal point. There is also a regular bus service linking Bicton to Shrewsbury with further access to the M54 motorway link leading to the West Midlands.
