Location

Set within the stunning Radnor Valley, the surrounding area offers a superb blend of rural tranquillity, village charm and accessible market-town amenities. Old Radnor is a peaceful hilltop village known for its far-reaching views, historic character and quiet countryside setting. Homes here enjoy a sense of privacy and space, with immediate access to walking routes, open landscapes and traditional village life. Just a short distance away, New Radnor provides everyday convenience with a friendly community feel. The village offers a pub, shop, play park and excellent access to Radnor Forest, making it a practical and welcoming hub for local residents. Nearby Kington serves as the main market town for the area, offering supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, medical facilities, schools and leisure amenities. Its position on the Herefordshire border makes it ideal for both daily needs and outdoor pursuits, including Offa's Dyke and Hergest Ridge. Further afield, larger centres such as Hereford, Shrewsbury and Llandrindod Wells provide extensive shopping, healthcare, education and transport links, ensuring the area remains well connected while retaining its rural appeal.

Services

The property has mains electricity, water and drainage and has oil fired heating.
