The Location

Some material information to note:

Tenure - Freehold.

The property has oil fired central heating and is connected to mains water, mains electrics, mains drainage. The property has a double garage and has the responsibility of the upkeep of the parking area in front. Ofcom checker indicates standard to superfast broadband is available. Ofcom checker indicates there is good mobile availability with providers. The government portal generally highlights this as an unlikely/very low risk address for flooding.

Properties built or renovated pre-1999 may contain asbestos in certain building materials e.g. Artex, vinyl tiles, sheet boards and corrugated roofing, pipework and lagging/insulation. These are generally considered safe unless disturbed but prospective buyers must take their own advice as we have not carried out a survey. We are not aware of any planning permissions in place which would negatively affect the property. Details of any further information relating to 'The Register of Title' can be available on request from the estate agent.

Upton is a pretty and popular village lying approximately 4 miles to the south of Didcot. The village boasts many pretty period properties an historic church and a recently refurbished thriving village pub (The George at Upton). The neighbouring village of Blewbury, just 2 miles away, offers additional facilities including a primary school, pre-school, popular farm shop and garden centre and a garage and filling station with convenience store.

Didcot offers more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities together with an excellent mainline rail service from Didcot Parkway to London Paddington in approximately 45 minutes. There is a cycle way from the village along the old railway line connecting to Didcot in under 2 miles.
