A 3 bedroom home ready to move into, this delightful end of terrace house in Gillingham offers plenty to love. With three bedrooms (including a third bedroom off the second), a bright open plan kitchen/dining area, and a separate reception room, this home has space and flexibility for everyday family life. Outside, you'll find open green space opposite ideal for walking, dog walking and recreation, plus a children's park on the far side. Two great pubs are within walking distance, and having a corner shop right next door adds everyday convenience. For commuters, it's just a short 10-minute walk to Gillingham railway station, with high speed services to St Pancras, and road links via the M2 are easy. Stroll to The Strand where you can enjoy the seasonal tidal lido, miniature railway, tennis courts and riverside walks. With no chain, this home offers a brilliant blend of practicality, lifestyle, and fantastic local amenities.
