Nestled in the heart of the Hessle Town Conservation Area, 'Old Beech Cottage' is a character-filled three-bedroom detached home brimming with history and charm, offering a rare chance to create a truly special family residence.

The ground floor features a well-proportioned layout, with a porch leading into a welcoming hallway, lounge with fitted appliances, spacious dining room, sitting room with veranda off, and fitted kitchen. A rear lobby provides access to a cloakroom and useful storage.

Fixed stairs from the lounge and sitting room lead to the first floor, which features two bedrooms with en-suite facilities, a generous third bedroom, and a bathroom furnished with a three-piece suite.

Externally, the property occupies a generous plot with gardens surrounding the house. A paved frontage with established planting forms the approach, while a side driveway offers off-street parking and access to the detached garage and an additional low-maintenance area.

A lawned section to the side provides a blank canvas for future landscaping or enhancement.
