Presenting a unique opportunity to acquire a two-bedroom maisonette in a sought-after location. This property, currently available for sale, is set over three levels, offering deceptively spacious rooms filled with natural light. It's a wonderful investment and an excellent first-time purchase.

The property needs modernising, giving you a chance to put your own stamp on it. It holds an EPC rating of D and falls under council tax band B. The residence offers a single reception room adorned with a charming fireplace and large windows that invite plenty of light. It also features built-in storage, providing a functional and organised living space.

The kitchen is designed to accommodate both cooking and dining, equipped with built-in pantries, and offers a roomy setting. The maisonette consists of two spacious bedrooms, the master and a double, both brimming with natural light. A large bathroom completes the interior layout.

One of the unique features of this home is its proximity to the city center, within convenient walking distance. It is also well served by public transport links and local amenities, making everyday living easier. Nearby schools make this an ideal home for families, while the nearby parks offer wonderful green spaces for everyone to enjoy.

This property is ideal for families, couples, and sharers alike, offering a blend of comfort, convenience, and potential. So, why wait? Seize this opportunity and make this space your dream home.
