Manor Farm House is a captivating 16th-century period home, beautifully extended and sympathetically maintained to offer a seamless blend of historic charm and modern comfort. Approached via a private shared gravel drive and tucked away from view, this delightful property enjoys a tranquil and secluded setting.

Steeped in character, the sitting room features a magnificent inglenook fireplace with a carved bressummer beam and a wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting focal point. The dining room provides an elegant entertaining space, with access to a cellar comprising two atmospheric barrel-ceilinged rooms. A well-equipped kitchen/breakfast room, offering generous storage and work surfaces, flows effortlessly into a superb south-facing garden room. With underfloor heating and space for informal dining, this bright and airy room is the perfect place to enjoy morning coffee or relaxed family meals. A practical cloak and utility room completes the ground-floor accommodation.

The first floor offers four bedrooms, including a principal suite with en-suite bathroom, alongside two further double bedrooms served by the family bathroom. A fourth bedroom provides excellent versatility and would be equally at home as a dressing room or study.

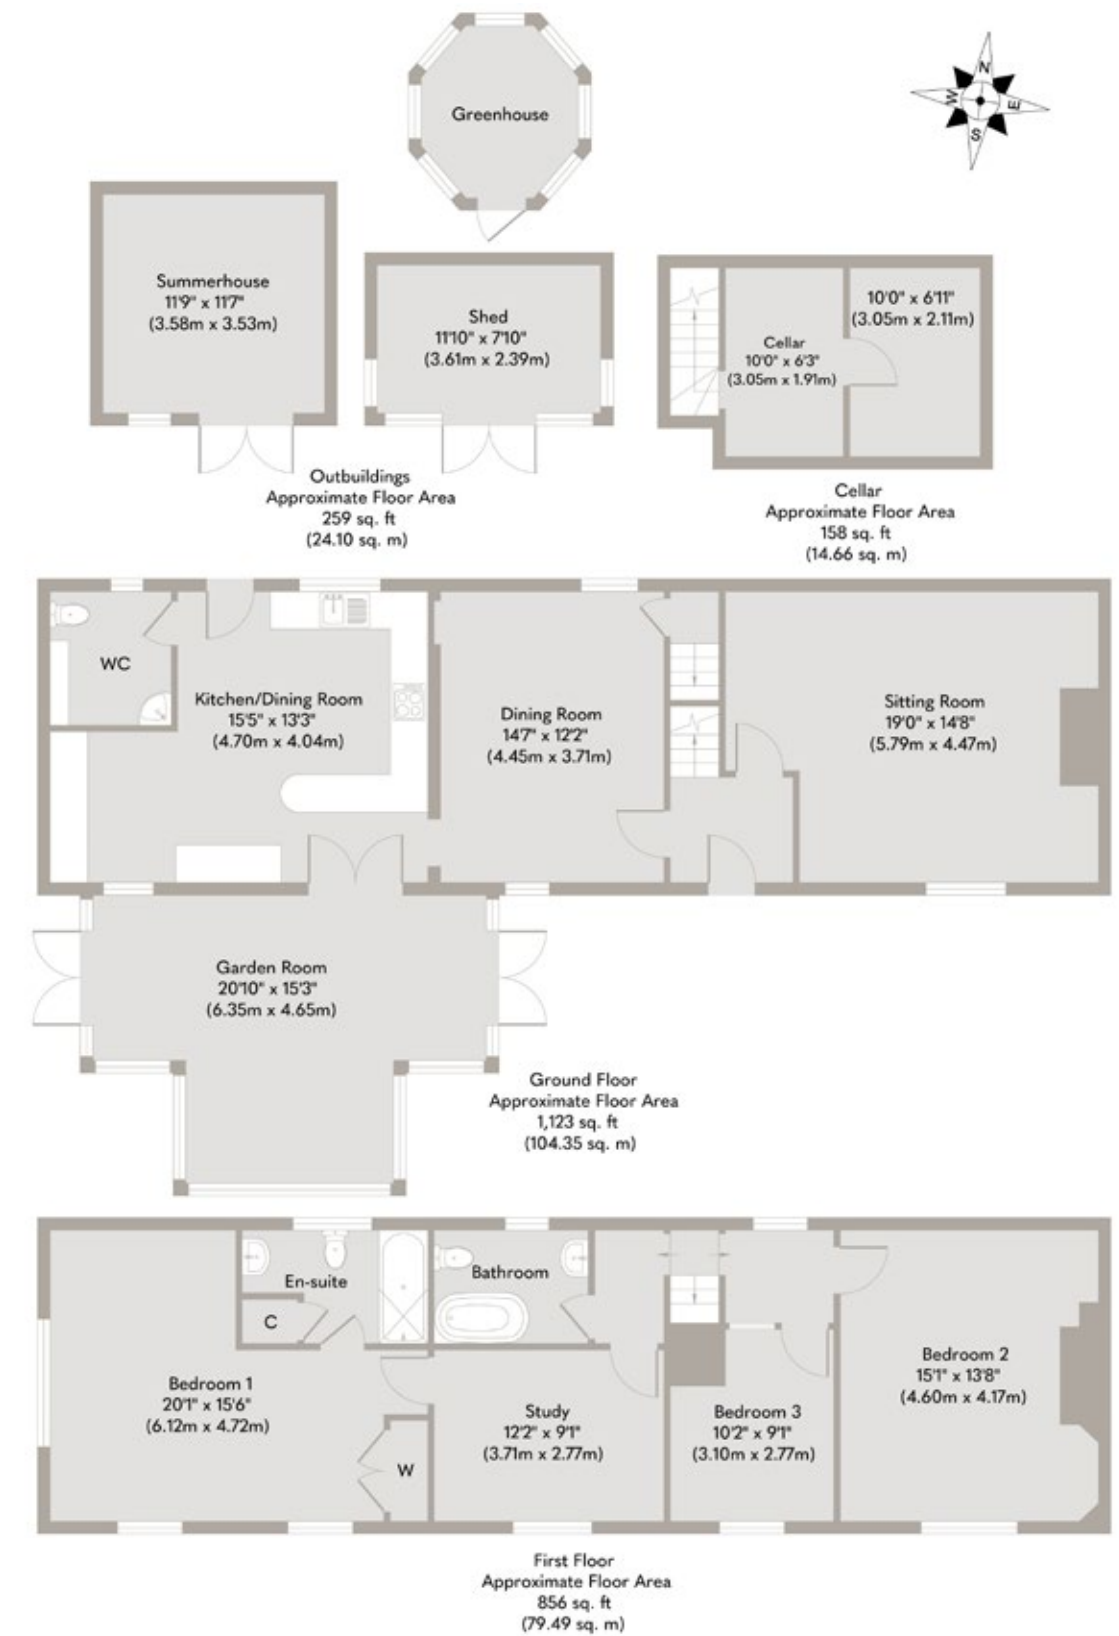

The gardens are a true highlight, south-facing and bursting with colour, featuring a wide variety of flowering perennials and thriving fruit trees. The summerhouse tucked at the bottom of the garden makes for a wonderful spot to soak in the tranquillity of the surroundings. Manor Farmhouse forms one of just three homes set within approximately a third of an acre (STMS), offering the perfect balance of privacy, character, and country living within easy reach of local amenities.
