DESCRIPTION

Situated on the highly sought-after Downend/Winterbourne borders, this attractive double bay-fronted detached dormer bungalow offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors. Ideally positioned for easy access to a wide range of local amenities, including shops, schools and leisure facilities, the property also benefits from excellent transport links via the Ring Road and motorway networks, making it an ideal choice for families and commuters alike.

The property has been significantly enhanced by a loft conversion, creating flexible and well-proportioned living space throughout. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall, lounge, sitting room, dining room/Bedroom 5, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, cloakroom, lean-to conservatory and a shower room.

To the first floor, the spacious principal bedroom enjoys the benefit of an en-suite bathroom, whilst there are two further bedrooms, a study and an additional shower room.

Externally, the property offers a driveway providing off-street parking for up to three vehicles, together with a garage. To the rear is a fantastic mature garden, mainly laid to lawn with patio areas, creating an excellent space for outdoor entertaining and family enjoyment. The garden is further complemented by a greenhouse, shed, summerhouse and a large workshop, offering excellent storage and hobby space.

An excellent opportunity to acquire a substantial and versatile home in a highly desirable location.
