With off-road parking, a manageable layout and a location within easy reach of Cardigan and the coast of Cardigan Bay, it is a property that will appeal to a wide range of buyers, from those looking to downsize through to purchasers seeking a low-maintenance home in West Wales. Situated within a pleasant residential development, this detached bungalow enjoys a practical and well-balanced layout extending to approximately 63.8 sq m. The property is presented in good order throughout and has clearly been well cared for, offering comfortable accommodation that could be enjoyed immediately while still allowing scope for personalisation over time.

The front door opens into a welcoming central hallway which provides access to all principal rooms. There is also a useful airing cupboard and loft hatch.

The living room is a particularly appealing space, extending across much of the rear of the property. Generous proportions allow for a variety of furniture arrangements, while French doors and adjoining windows make the most of the outlook over the rear garden and neighbouring fields beyond. Natural light floods into the room, creating a bright and relaxing environment throughout the day.

The kitchen sits adjacent to the living room and is fitted with a range of oak-effect base and wall units, work surfaces and integrated cooking facilities. There is space for a breakfast table, making it a practical everyday kitchen, while a door provides direct access to the rear garden and patio.

Continued:

Both bedrooms are comfortable doubles positioned towards the front of the bungalow. The principal bedroom benefits from twin windows which provide excellent natural light, while the second bedroom, which also benefits from twin windows and offers flexibility as a guest room, home office or hobby room depending on requirements.

Completing the accommodation is the family bathroom, fitted with a bath incorporating a shower attachment, WC and wash hand basin.

Outside

The property is approached over a tarmac driveway providing off-road parking directly to the front.

To the rear, the garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create an attractive and easy-to-maintain outdoor space. A paved patio immediately outside the living room provides an ideal spot for outdoor dining and enjoying the sunny aspect. Beyond this are gravelled areas, colourful planting beds, mature shrubs and ornamental features which give the garden plenty of character throughout the seasons.

One of the standout features is the pleasant open outlook across neighbouring countryside, adding a feeling of space and privacy. A useful garden shed provides additional storage for tools and equipment.

Cilgerran is one of the most popular villages in the Cardigan area, sitting above the dramatic Teifi Gorge and renowned for its historic castle, riverside walks and strong community atmosphere. The village offers everyday amenities including a shop, post office, café, garage and primary school, while the nearby Welsh Wildlife Centre and Teifi Marshes Nature Reserve provide excellent opportunities for walking and wildlife watching. Cardigan town is only a short drive away, offering a wider range of shops, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities, while the beaches and coastal path of Cardigan Bay are also within easy reach.

Properties of this type are always popular thanks to their manageable size, detached nature and convenient village location. The attractive rear garden, countryside outlook and comfortable accommodation make this a home that is easy to imagine enjoying for many years to come.
