PROPERTY SUMMARY

An exquisite five-bedroom, end-of-terrace period residence, occupying a prime corner position and enjoying a beautifully maintained south-west facing rear garden with the rare advantage of side access.

Meticulously presented, this exceptional family home offers a seamless fusion of elegant period detailing and high-quality contemporary design. Thoughtfully configured to suit modern family living, the layout provides both generous entertaining space and practical day-to-day functionality.

The property features two distinguished reception rooms, rich in character and charm, alongside a striking kitchen/dining space designed as the true heart of the home – ideal for gatherings and everyday living alike. A guest cloakroom enhances convenience on the ground floor. Upstairs, five well-proportioned bedrooms are complemented by a stylish family bathroom and an additional contemporary shower room, offering flexibility for growing families. Further benefits include extensive built-in storage and an additional amenity room, perfect as a media room, playroom, gym or home office.

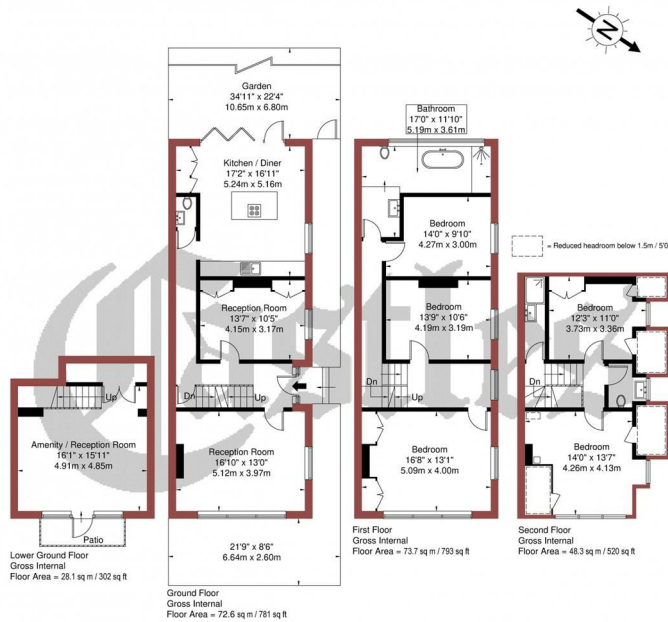

Perfectly positioned between the vibrant cafés and boutiques of Crouch End and the excellent transport links.

This outstanding home combines period grandeur, modern comfort and exceptional convenience in one of North London's most sought-after settings.
