Property Details

Exceptional three-double-bedroom home with a private garden, offering nearly 1,300 square feet across four levels within the highly sought-after Josephine Avenue Conservation Area on Helix Gardens. Combining substantial proportions, period character, exceptional outside space and a wonderfully secluded setting, this is a truly special home. Comprehensively renovated in 2018 under the direction of Studio Atara, the property has been thoughtfully designed throughout. The generous double-aspect reception and kitchen spans the full width of the building, featuring high ceilings, oak floorboards, two period fireplaces, bespoke shelving and a Juliet balcony. A square bay with window seat overlooks the established private garden. Double-glazed sash windows and Juliet balcony doors were added in 2025, improving comfort and insulation. Three double bedrooms occupy separate levels, alongside two bathrooms (one an en-suite) and a WC, plus versatile landing spaces including an upper-floor study area. The secure, gated garden is larger than average, and the low-traffic setting creates a remarkably peaceful environment.
