Set within the iconic Clarence Gate Gardens, one of Marylebone's most distinctive Edwardian mansion blocks, this beautifully proportioned three-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment combines period character with exceptional space moments from Regent's Park. Accessed via an impressive communal entrance with original mosaic flooring, marble stairs, decorative ironwork and lift access, the building immediately reflects its early 1900s heritage.

Positioned on the lower ground floor, the apartment feels far from typical, offering unusually high ceilings, generous rooms and beautifully preserved original features including herringbone parquet flooring, elegant archways and decorative fireplaces.

The spacious reception room provides separate living and dining areas, while the kitchen overlooks a peaceful communal patio garden just outside the window, a rare green retreat in central London.

Moments from The Regent's Park, Baker Street Station 0,1m) and Marylebone High Street.
