Management Information

The apartment forms part of a resident-managed building, with all flat owners collectively owning and managing the communal areas through the management company.

The current monthly contribution for Flat 8 is £112.50, which includes:

- The property's apportioned share of the building insurance.
- An £85 monthly contribution towards the management company's maintenance fund, covering the ongoing upkeep of the communal areas and helping to build reserves for future repairs.

The building insurance contribution has remained consistently stable over recent years. Any changes to the monthly maintenance contribution are agreed collectively by the shareholders, ensuring all decisions are made in the best interests of the building. During the current owner's ownership, no additional or unexpected charges have been required, with the management fund remaining well maintained.

Responsibility for the communal entrance, staircase, exterior of the building and roof rests with the management company, while each individual flat owner is responsible for their own front door.
