Delightfully situated in a genuinely tucked away location, at the end of a private lane, in the rural village of Porkellis, is this spacious four bedroom individual detached bungalow standing in gardens and grounds of circa three and a half acres.

Whilst in need of extensive internal refurbishment and renovation to restore Kilters to its' former glory, the residence offers a rare opportunity to recreate a fabulous family home in a sylvan setting, complete with a tennis court (overgrown).

A generous driveway and turning circle provides parking for a number of vehicles and is complemented by a double garage and adjacent workshop and outbuildings (some in poor condition).

Offering balanced and well proportioned living accommodation with two large reception rooms (with fireplaces), together with a large kitchen and breakfast room, once renovated the residence would seem perfect for family living or active retirees who enjoy gardening and an active outdoor lifestyle.

With three comfortable bedrooms and a fourth which is versatile enough to be utilised as a home office, study or play room to suit, the potential and options here are likely to appeal to a wide range of prospective buyers.

Enjoying a southerly aspect over the rear garden, the sun terrace enjoys good degrees of privacy and would seem a perfect place in which to sit out and relax with family and friends.

There are a number of greenhouses and an outside store which would seem well suited for those with green fingers and horticultural interests. Some of the grounds are neatly enclosed by Cornish hedging with a variety of mature plants and trees at the borders.

The accommodation in brief comprises an entrance porch, hallway, kitchen / breakfast room, utility room, study / bedroom four, sun porch, dining room, lounge, bathroom, and three bedrooms. The property benefits from some double glazing and oil fire central heating (not known if in working order).

Porkellis is a lovely rural hamlet convenient for the towns of Helston and Falmouth with all the amenities they have to offer. The Star Inn in Porkellis is a well regarded pub whilst primary schools are available in the neighbouring hamlets of Halwin and Wendron. Stithians Reservoir and Water Sports Centre are located approximately four miles away. There are a wealth of footpaths and bridleways moments away from the property whilst the National Trust owned Porkellis Moor is nearby. Secondary education can be found both in the towns of Helston and Falmouth while the latter also has a university campus.

OUTSIDE

A private lane leads to the property with gates opening out into a driveway with a generous turning circle, providing parking for several vehicles and leading, in turn, to a double garage. There are outbuildings (in poor condition) including a workshop space with power and light, a shed and further outside store.

A gate and pathway lead into the overgrown gardens and grounds which are in the region of circa 3.5 acres. Amidst these are a number of informal paths running through the grounds and leading to greenhouses, sheds and a former tennis court. Adjacent to the bungalow is a self-contained potting room which would seem an ideal place in which to grow tomatoes and other similar produce. To the rear of the bungalow is a large sun patio (overgrown) which leads on to what was previously the formal rear garden and is currently overgrown.
