A fantastic opportunity to purchase a spacious two double bedroom semi-detached retirement home, with amazing views over rolling countryside, with allocated carport parking space. The property forms part of the exclusive Hollins Hall Retirement Village for the 'over 55's', set in a peaceful location with fifteen acres of landscaped grounds, private gardens and enjoying stunning views over the Yorkshire dales, whilst offering high quality social care with leisure facilities including swimming pool, exercise room, communal lounge and private restaurant.

The accommodation has the benefit of double glazed windows, gas fired central heating and comprises: Entrance hallway, two double ground floor bedrooms, both featuring fitted wardrobes, bedroom one with en-suite shower room and double doors opening to a patio seating area and house bathroom. Stairs from the hallway lead to a first floor open plan lounge/diner with amazing elevated views and Juliette balcony, an inner hallway with guest WC, leads to a kitchen with space for a table and double doors open to a utility area.

To the outside, the property has the benefit of a forecourt garden to the front, two allocated parking spaces under a carport. The rear has a patio area and attractive, lawned communal gardens.
