

Evanton offers a blend of outdoor adventure, community facilities and Highland scenery, known for the nearby Fyrish Monument and the dramatic Black Rock Gorge, both of which offer spectacular walking routes. The Evanton Community Wood features miles of accessible trails, wildlife habitats, and a playground, making it popular with walkers, cyclists and families alike. The village itself, benefits from amenities such as local shops, cafés, a primary school, community hall, sports centre, play parks, BMX facilities and a network of coastal and woodland footpaths. Its location, just a short drive from Inverness and Dingwall, makes Evanton an ideal base for exploring the wider Highlands while enjoying a village community.

Enjoying stunning views across the Cromarty Firth, Number 10 is an extended split-level property offering flexible accommodation over three floors.
