Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, just moments from open green parkland, Adamson Gardens feels like the kind of place where life naturally slows down and settles into an easy rhythm. A place where Sunday mornings start with a stroll across the road, children racing ahead on scooters, or the dog bounding happily through the grass while coffee plans are made for later in the village.

Step inside and you're immediately welcomed by a bright, open and airy entrance hallway – the sort of space that instantly makes sense for real life. There's room to kick off muddy boots after a park walk, hang coats, park the pushchair or dog lead, and take a breath before the day continues. It sets the tone beautifully for what's to come: a home that's spacious, flexible and designed to grow with you.

The ground floor offers something truly special. Here you'll find a generous bedroom complete with its own en-suite bathroom, making it ideal for a teenager craving independence, visiting family, or guests who'll never want to leave. Just off this room sits a utility area with sink, easily adaptable as a mini kitchen space – perfect for creating a semi-self-contained living zone.

Alongside this is a second warm and inviting double bedroom, which could just as easily transform into a cozy snug, second lounge or home cinema if four bedrooms aren't required. This entire level has enormous potential – whether you're imagining multigenerational living, a work-from-home retreat, or simply a space where everyone can spread out and breathe.

Head upstairs to the middle floor, where the home continues to impress. The principal bedroom is modern, calm and effortlessly stylish – a true retreat at the end of the day. Alongside it sits a larger-than-average fourth bedroom, perfect as a nursery, child's room, study or home office – ideal for first-time buyers planning for the future or families already growing.

This floor is also home to the sleek family bathroom, a beautifully designed, spa-like space where long soaks wash away the stresses of the day. Think candles, bubbles, and a rare moment of peace.

And then, you reach the top floor – and this is where the house truly comes alive.

With its high vaulted ceiling and exposed beams gives a sense of openness, this is a truly special space.
