Portgordon is a village in Moray, renowned as being one of the sunniest and driest counties in Scotland, and offering a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat and shop. The county is famed for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches and wildlife, and provides wonderful leisure and recreational opportunities including golf and angling. Spey Bay is approximately 5 miles away and can be reached on foot as part of the Speyside Way.

Full details

Portgordon is a popular seal-watching spot, with seals often seen basking on the shore, drawn to the coastline due to its abundance of fish. The village has a nursery and primary school, with secondary schooling available at Buckie High School only 2.5 miles away or Milne's High School in nearby Fochabers. Portgordon is also served by a general store with post office, village hall and community cafe. Elgin, Aberdeen and Inverness are all within easy commuting distance, while train stations at Keith and Elgin provide direct links to Aberdeen and Inverness. Buckie and Elgin offer major supermarkets, a good selection of independent shops, and sporting and recreational facilities. Aberdeen and Inverness provide all of the facilities expected of a city, including excellent shopping, retail parks, rail links and airports.

42 Crown Street is a semi-detached home which is ideally located for the local primary school, approx 200 metres away, and has a south facing view of the countryside from the rear. The property is in walk-in condition, has been freshly painted and has new floor coverings on the ground floor. A new boiler has been installed this year, along with new double glazed windows throughout and new composite exterior doors to the front and rear. The accommodation comprises on the ground floor; hall, living room, kitchen, rear hall, bedroom with ensuite shower room and on the first floor, two double bedrooms and bathroom. All fitted carpets, floor coverings, and light fittings are included in the sale price.

Access is via a glazed composite door into the vestibule and through a glazed door into the hall, which provides access to the living room, kitchen and the carpeted staircase to the first floor. The hall has a large under stair cupboard which houses the Baxi combi boiler.
