53 High Street is a beautifully refurbished 7-bedroom HMO has been thoughtfully designed to offer modern, comfortable living with premium finishes throughout, ideal for professional sharers seeking quality accommodation.

The property comprises seven generously sized bedrooms, six of which benefit from their own private en-suite bathrooms, each complete with a WC, shower and wash basin for maximum convenience and privacy. The third non-ensuite room boasts natural light with the extra privacy of the room being towards the back of the house with the remaining bathroom downstairs.

Each bedroom is finished with hard-wearing grey carpet, combining durability with a contemporary aesthetic. The neutral tones provide a modern, clean feel while ensuring longevity for high-traffic living.

The communal areas have been designed to impress. The hallway, 2 kitchens and lounge feature elegant herringbone oak flooring, creating a warm and stylish environment perfect for both relaxing and socialising. The kitchens are spacious and practical, offering ample storage and preparation space to suit shared living.

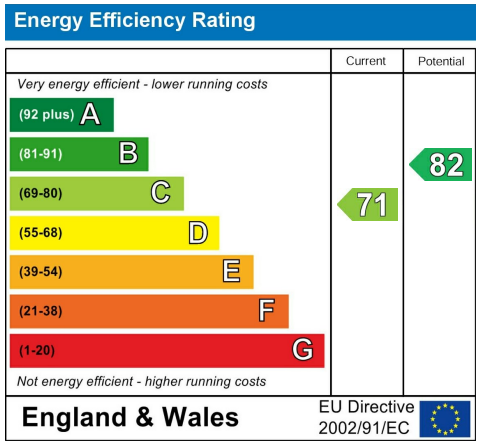

Throughout the property, you'll find solid oak internal doors complemented by sleek black ironmongery, delivering a cohesive, high-spec finish that elevates the overall design.
