NO ONWARD CHAIN Occupying a prime central position within easy walking distance of Burnham's wide range of local amenities—including shops, pubs, restaurants, a post office, doctor's surgery, supermarket, and mainline railway station with direct links to London Liverpool Street—this charming semi-detached property offers a superb blend of character features and spacious, open-plan living.

The impressive accommodation begins on the ground floor, where a welcoming living room opens into a dining area, which in turn leads to the kitchen and a four-piece family bathroom. To the first floor is a superb, light-filled galleried landing providing access to two well-proportioned bedrooms.

Externally, the property benefits from a low-maintenance, block-paved rear courtyard. To the side of the house is substantial off-street parking for several vehicles, with gated access leading to a garage fitted with an electric door.

Given its highly sought-after central location, generous living space, and rare parking provision for Burnham, this property is expected to generate strong interest. Early viewing is therefore highly recommended. Energy Rating D.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renowned yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
