Why You'll Love It

Step inside, and you'll find an interior that combines style, functionality, and sheer elegance. The ground floor comprises a modern kitchen with a dining area, creating a space perfect for culinary delights and family meals. Well-presented and opulent in design, the kitchen seamlessly flows into the lounge. The lounge is equally impressive, characterised by its size and the quality of design, making it a showcase for sophistication, and complementing the ground floor impeccably. Three sets of French doors connect this opulent space to the garden outside, seamlessly blending the lines between indoors and outdoors. Both rooms are equipped with underfloor heating, adding some luxury to the cosiness of the downstairs living spaces. A downstairs washroom and utility room on the ground floor enhance the practicality of this property.

This home boasts five bedrooms, with four located on the first floor and the fifth on the second floor. The fifth room is expansive and features a large ensuite with a built-in wardrobe. Bedroom two also has an ensuite, offering comfort and privacy. Each of the bedrooms is decorated neutrally, providing a versatile and serene environment for personalisation. Finally, we have the three-piece family bathroom, exquisitely presented with dark, sleek tiling, creating a sumptuous atmosphere for personal care.

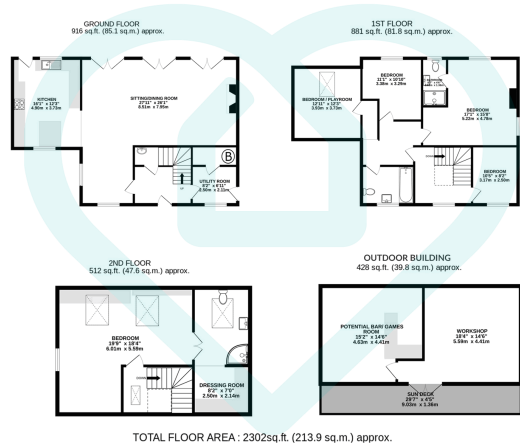

Externally, you will discover plenty of outdoor space and advantages. Welcoming you at the entrance, electric gates provide security and privacy, opening into an extensive drive with a large space for safely parking multiple cars. An outside workroom adds versatility and convenience to the property. Leading through to the wrap-around garden, offering an ideal canvas for landscaping, outdoor activities and even a play area. A sleek, raised seating area provides an inviting space for relaxation and al fresco dining.
