SITUATION

Bank Lane is situated in the very heart of Totnes, one of Devon's most attractive and historic market towns, renowned for its characterful streets, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and vibrant community atmosphere. The town has long been regarded as one of the South Hams' most desirable locations, combining a rich architectural heritage with excellent day-to-day amenities and convenient access to the surrounding countryside.

Totnes lies on the River Dart and is well placed for the South Devon coast, Dartmoor National Park and the wider South Hams. The town also benefits from a mainline railway station, providing connections towards Exeter, Plymouth, London Paddington and beyond.

DESCRIPTION

Offering an exciting opportunity in a central Totnes setting, 11 Bank Lane is a three bedroom home with a private rear garden and considerable potential for refurbishment.

The property forms part of a terrace and is approached via a shared courtyard to the front. The accommodation extends to approximately 914 sq ft and is arranged over two floors, with a practical layout that includes a kitchen, sitting room, ground floor cloakroom, three bedrooms and a first floor bathroom. The house would now benefit from refurbishment, giving purchasers the opportunity to enhance and modernise the accommodation to suit their own requirements.
