A characterful and well-proportioned one-bedroom apartment occupying the top floor of an attractive Grade II listed building, offering approximately 610 sq. ft. of accommodation. Positioned within easy reach of Cheltenham town centre, the apartment combines generous room proportions with period features, including sash-style windows and decorative fireplaces. The accommodation comprises a spacious reception/dining room, separate kitchen, generous double bedroom and bathroom. Further benefits include a share of freehold, a long remaining lease and access to a private residents' car park to the rear.

Entrance Hall: The apartment opens into a central entrance hall providing access to each of the principal rooms. Its practical arrangement separates the living and sleeping accommodation while creating a welcoming entrance to the property.

Sitting/Dining Room: A particularly generous reception room offering excellent versatility for both relaxing and dining. The proportions comfortably accommodate a sitting area alongside a dining table, with additional space currently utilised as a home-working area. A large sash-style window allows plenty of natural light into the room and provides an elevated outlook across the surrounding rooftops. Period character is introduced through an attractive decorative fireplace with a traditional surround, complemented by the room's distinctive architectural proportions.

Kitchen: The separate kitchen is fitted with a range of cream wall and base units complemented by wood-effect work surfaces and contrasting blue tiled splashbacks. There is a stainless-steel sink, freestanding cooker with extractor above and space for a fridge/freezer and washing machine. A sash-style window provides natural light, while the arrangement of cabinetry offers useful preparation and storage space.

Bedroom: The generously proportioned double bedroom provides ample room for a large bed together with freestanding wardrobes, drawers and additional bedroom furniture. Decorated in a rich colour palette, the room has plenty of individual character, with an ornate decorative fireplace forming an attractive focal point. A sash-style window brings natural light into the room, while the generous proportions provide flexibility for additional storage or dressing furniture.

Bathroom: The bathroom is finished with contemporary white tiling and contrasting painted walls. The suite comprises a walk-in shower enclosure with glazed screen, pedestal wash hand basin and WC. Wood-effect flooring and open shelving complete the space, providing a practical combination of storage and display.

Parking: To the rear of the building is a private residents' car park. The apartment has use of one parking space on a first-come, first-served basis.
