About this property

Located in the village community of Llangynidr, within the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park and just a short walk from the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal, Forge Cottage is a beautifully presented 18th-century stone-built property. The cottage is in excellent condition throughout, offering a lovely balance of original character and modern comforts. The accommodation is arranged over two floors. On the ground floor, there is a spacious kitchen/breakfast room with plenty of storage, integrated appliances, a double oven and a central island. French doors open directly onto the south-facing garden, while the kitchen also leads through to the dining room, which could equally be used as an office or snug. There is also a generous sitting room, featuring a charming stone fireplace with a wood-burning stove. The original lower steps of the stone spiral staircase sit alongside the fireplace and make a particularly attractive feature. The room also has its own entrance from the garden. Completing the ground floor is a useful utility room and downstairs WC. From the hallway, a timber staircase leads to the first-floor landing, where there are two good-sized double bedrooms, one with an attractive exposed stone wall, a further single bedroom and the family bathroom. Outside, the property is approached through double gates onto a private driveway with parking for several vehicles. The driveway leads to a single-storey storeroom/workshop with power and water, as well as a recently built garage-sized storage building. The garden is mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by feather-edge fencing, providing a good degree of privacy. Reclaimed railway sleeper walls create a raised terrace with plenty of space for garden furniture and outdoor entertaining. From the garden, there are lovely views across the surrounding countryside towards the mountains beyond.

The village of Llangynidr occupies a delightful position in the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park close to the river Usk and the Monmouthshire and Brecon canal. The village offers a range of amenities including a primary school, community hall, two public houses, post office, convenience store, petrol station and a variety of sports facilities. Nearby Crickhowell offers a range of independent local shops, variety of pubs, several places of worship and popular secondary school. The area is well known for its outdoor pursuits, including walking, caving, and climbing with canal walks, pony trekking and fishing all nearby. The larger market town of Abergavenny, situated 5 miles away, acts as the major transport hub for the area. The Railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further twenty five minutes away. Furthermore there is a large bus station with an extensive range of routes to neighbouring towns and villages and as far afield as Cardiff.

Directions

From Abergavenny take the A40 through Crickhowell taking the left hand turn opposite the petrol station into New Road. Follow the road down the hill and over the river bridge and take the right turn at the lights (signposted Llangynidr). Continue for approximately four miles into the village and take the right fork into Forge Road and the house can be found on the right hand side. The What3Words reference is: protrude.double.wings
