

Little Barton, Great Barton, Suffolk.

DAVID BURR

Great Barton is a popular village with a post office, preschool, primary school, public house, active village hall and church. A more comprehensive range of facilities are available at the Cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds. The A143 runs through the village providing easy access to the A14. There is a commuter rail link service to London Liverpool Street Station at Stowmarket and a branch line service at Bury St. Edmunds and also Thurston (3 miles).

Understood to date from 1874, Little Barton occupies a discreet yet accessible position within this highly regarded village, surrounded by maturing grounds amounting to approximately 0.47 acres and complemented by double garaging and ancillary accommodation. In brief the accommodation schedule extends to approximately 3,000 sq.ft. (including the annexe) and benefits from period features complemented by modern sympathetic additions.
