Rarely available and set within a well-established, leafy neighbourhood highly regarded locally, this substantial five-bedroom Edwardian home offers exceptional family living just a stone's throw from the Forest, the park, and the lake. Arranged over three generous floors on one of Highams Park's most desirable roads, the property enjoys beautiful open views across Highams Park and Lake and combines period character with superb flexibility for modern family life. The ground floor features two bright, interconnecting reception rooms and a large kitchen/breakfast room, with glazed doors linking back to the main reception to create an effortless flow for entertaining and larger gatherings.
