Nestled in the desirable Briar Hill, this spacious bungalow offers comfortable living with versatile accommodation in the beautiful South Hams countryside. Enjoying off-street parking and a lovely garden, this property is ideally suited for those seeking a tranquil village lifestyle with excellent access to local amenities.

Upon entering, two well-proportioned and welcoming reception rooms, provide ample space for both relaxation and entertaining. Bifold doors between the living room/dining room and kitchen optimise the versatility of the home and the warmth of a wood burner in the sitting room creates a cosy atmosphere during cooler months. The layout flows seamlessly, offering flexibility for various living arrangements.

The bungalow features four comfortable bedrooms, ensuring plenty of privacy and space. Two bathrooms serve the property, contributing to its practical appeal. Large windows throughout invite natural light, creating bright and airy interiors. The property benefits from mains gas central heating installed in 2011 and double glazing, ensuring year-round comfort.

Outside, the property boasts a glorious garden, and a Mediterranean styled courtyard area, perfect for outdoor dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. The off-street driveway provides convenient parking for residents and guests.
