Location

Situated in the heart of the Cheshire countryside, Goostrey is a charming and highly regarded village combining rural character with excellent connectivity. Known for its welcoming community atmosphere, attractive period properties and scenic surroundings, Goostrey offers a peaceful village lifestyle whilst remaining conveniently placed for the major business centres of the North West. The village benefits from a range of local amenities including shops, pubs, a well-regarded primary school, sports facilities and a popular village hall hosting regular community events. Surrounded by open countryside and close to the Cheshire Plain and Peak District National Park, the area is ideal for walking and outdoor pursuits. Goostrey railway station provides commuter rail links to Manchester and Crewe, with onward connections to London, whilst the M6 motorway and Manchester Airport are both within easy reach, making the village particularly popular with families and professionals alike.
