RESIDENCE

3 Bedrooms | 1 Public Room | 2 Bathroom

Occupying a sought-after top floor position within the prestigious Old Station Court development, this impressive three-bedroom apartment offers spacious, well-presented accommodation in the heart of Bothwell village.

Built by Bett Homes circa 2000, the property extends to over 1,200 sq ft and enjoys a bright, airy layout with attractive views towards Main Street and the surrounding grounds. Well maintained throughout, the apartment features a modern dining kitchen, generous room sizes and excellent storage, making it an ideal home for a variety of buyers.

The accommodation comprises a secure communal entrance with lift and stair access, a welcoming reception hall with storage, a substantial lounge/dining room measuring over 20 feet in length, a modern fitted dining kitchen with integrated appliances, three well-proportioned bedrooms, all with new carpets and fitted wardrobes, an en-suite shower room off the principal bedroom, and a family bathroom finished with white sanitary ware and quality tiling.

Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing, residents' parking and extensive floored roof space for additional storage. The development is professionally factored and set within beautifully maintained landscaped grounds with lawns, mature trees and attractive planting.

Top floor three-bedroom apartments within Old Station Court rarely come to market, and this particular home combines generous accommodation with a prime village location.

Old Station Court is one of Bothwell's most admired residential developments, within walking distance of the village's excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants, bistros and pubs. Hamilton and Uddingston provide regular rail services, while the nearby M74 offers excellent access across the Central Belt. A wide range of leisure facilities, including golf courses, gyms, swimming pools and country parks, are also close at hand.
