Mulburries present this beautifully presented two-bedroom home on Galley Hill, offering stylish interiors, generous room sizes, a landscaped rear garden and a standout detached summer house with WC – ideal for entertaining, hobbies or home working.

The ground floor opens into a welcoming hall leading to a bright living room with wood-style flooring and a cosy, modern feel. To the rear, the well-planned kitchen provides excellent storage, worktop space and room for dining, with a smart contemporary finish and garden access. Beyond the kitchen, the covered outdoor kitchen creates a brilliant entertaining zone, perfect for barbecues, parties and relaxed evenings with friends.

Upstairs are two well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious main bedroom, plus a stylish family bathroom with bath and shower screen. The home is well maintained throughout and offers a practical layout for first-time buyers, downsizers, families or investors.

Outside is where this property really stands out. The rear garden has been designed for low-maintenance living, with paved seating areas, outdoor cooking space and a detached summer house measuring approximately 11'2 x 12'10 max. Complete with its own WC, this versatile building is perfect as a garden bar, office, gym, studio or guest space. The floor plan indicates approximately 1,068 sq ft in total Galley Hill is a well-connected residential area of Hemel Hempstead, popular for everyday amenities, green spaces and commuter access. Local shops, schools and bus routes are close by, while Hemel Hempstead town centre offers shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities. Gadebridge Park and nearby walking routes provide outdoor space, while Hemel Hempstead station offers rail services towards London Euston. The A41, M1 and M25 are also easily accessible, making this practical for St Albans, Watford, London and the wider Home Counties.
