5 Rowan Close, Ashford, TW15 3JL

This modern, well-presented three-bedroom home is tucked away in a small and private estate of just five properties at the end of Queens Walk. Built in 2006, the house enjoys a peaceful setting while remaining within easy reach of Ashford town centre, local schools and everyday amenities. The property is in excellent decorative order throughout, making it ready for immediate occupation and ideal for families, first-time buyers or those looking to upsize into a well-maintained home.

Internally, the accommodation offers a practical and well-balanced layout, including a separate fitted kitchen, a spacious lounge ideal for both relaxing and entertaining, and a convenient downstairs W.C. Upstairs are three comfortable bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the property benefits from off-street parking and a pleasant southerly-facing rear garden, perfect for enjoying the sun. There is also potential to extend (subject to the usual planning consents), giving buyers the opportunity to further enhance and personalise this attractive home.
