Draffan Gardens
Netherburn, ML9 3FA

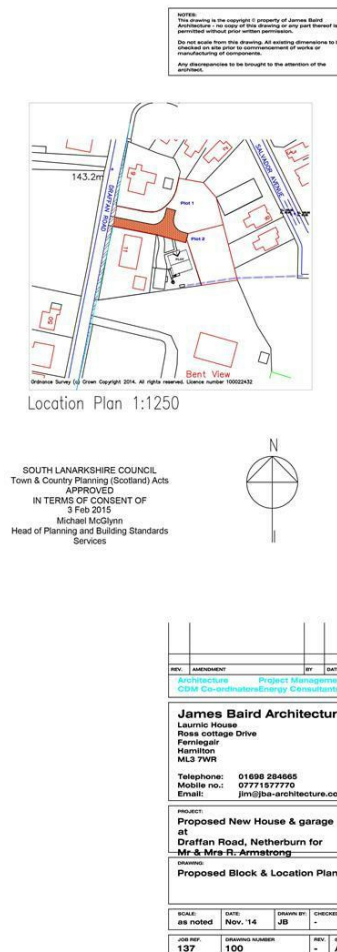

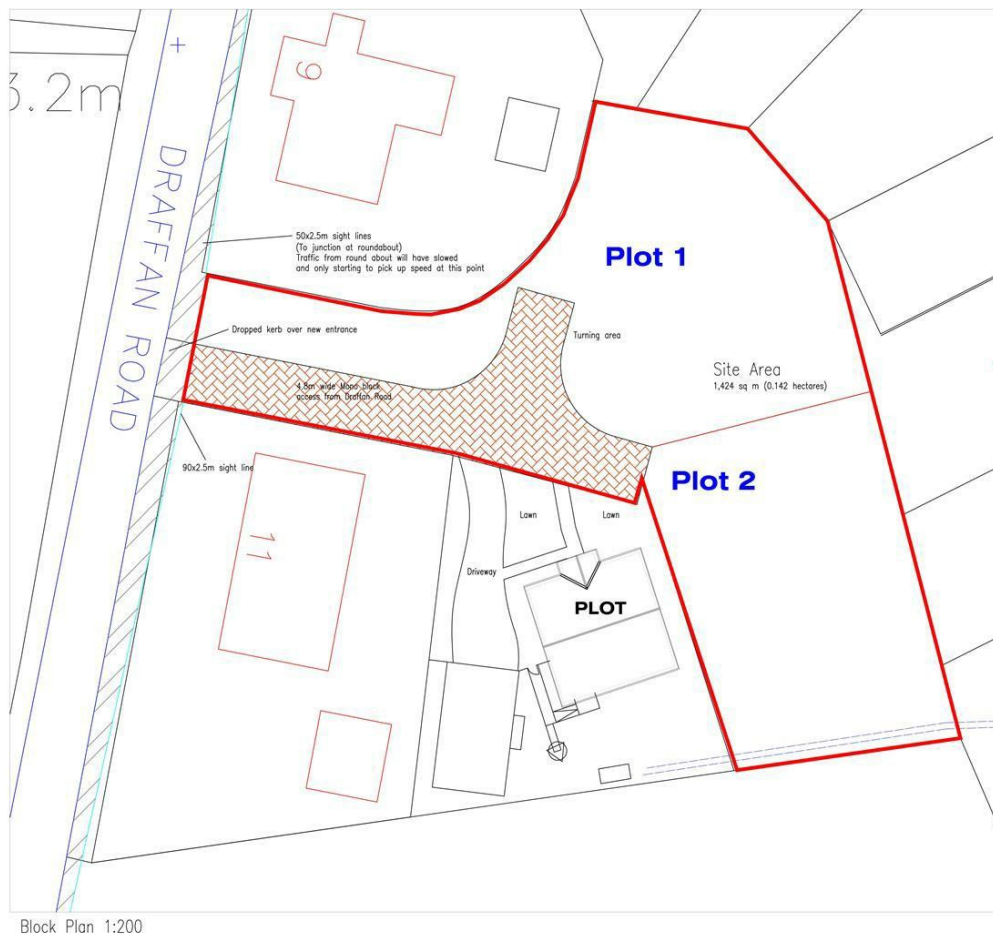

PROPERTY SUMMARY

Spacious building plot located on the periphery of the rural village of Netherburn overlooking picturesque South Lanarkshire countryside and the Dalserf Burn. The well-proportioned, level plot extending to circa 540sqm is situated within a small, exclusive development of only two existing properties. Services are situated at the entrance to the small enclave and the road leading from Draffan Road is owned equally between the three plots. Outline planning was obtained in 2015 and can be viewed via the South Lanarkshire portal with the following reference - HM/14/0546

Netherburn is a pretty semi-rural village which has amenities expected of a small village including a well-regarded nursery and primary school. A broader selection of amenities can be found in nearby Stonehouse and Larkhall. The towns of Strathaven, Hamilton, and Motherwell have a more comprehensive range of shopping and recreational facilities. For those who commute Netherburn is conveniently located close by to the M74 providing access to the road network throughout the central belt.
