AN EXPANSIVE LATERAL APARTMENT

The dining hall forms a natural central hub to the home, connecting seamlessly to the principal reception room which enjoys an elegant curved bay with large windows and excellent proportions, creating an inviting space for both relaxing and entertaining. The kitchen/ dining area forms a key focal point of the home, featuring double windows overlooking the evergreen communal gardens, to which only this flat has direct access, bringing in natural light and a calming outlook. It is well laid out for everyday living while remaining distinct from the main reception spaces. A separate utility room adds further practicality. The sleeping accommodation is thoughtfully arranged, with multiple bedrooms positioned along the length of the apartment. The high ceilings provide a great sense of openness and abundant natural light throughout. The apartment benefits from access to award-winning communal gardens, providing a welcome outdoor retreat and enhancing the sense of space and openness.
