5 Redcar Road

Marske-By-The-Sea, TS11 6AA

£135,000

This unique commercial property presents an excellent investment opportunity. Spanning an impressive 850 square feet, the building boasts a well-established business that has been trading successfully for many years.

Constructed in the early 1900s, this property combines historical character with modern functionality. The commercial space is complemented by residential accommodation above, making it a versatile option with a dual income.

The location is ideal, situated in a vibrant area that benefits from foot traffic and local amenities, ensuring the business thrives. With a commercial tenant already in place, this property is sold with the added advantage of immediate rental income.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a commercial property with residential potential in a desirable seaside town. Whether you are looking to expand your investment portfolio or seeking a property with dual functionality, this offering on Redcar Road is not to be missed.
