Nestled in the charming area of Stapleton, Bristol, this superb, contemporary, end-terrace house offers a delightful blend of comfort and style. Built between 1970 and 1979, this well-maintained property boasts spacious and well-proportioned accommodation, making it an ideal choice for professionals, young families, or even buy-to-let investors. The home features two inviting reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings. With three generous bedrooms, there is ample space for everyone. It is currently being used as a four letting room rental with the necessary smoke alarm and emergency lighting system, should you wish to explore this property as an investment. The family bathroom together with the separate downstairs cloak room is conveniently located, ensuring ease of access for all. One of the standout features of this property is the garage, accompanied by an adjoining workshop, providing excellent storage solutions or a space for hobbies. The property also benefits from parking for one vehicle, adding to the convenience of modern living. Situated in a mature development, this home enjoys an elevated position that offers far-reaching views towards Eastville Park and the city skyline. The surrounding area is rich in natural beauty, with fabulous walks alongside the River Frome and the valley, perfect for those who appreciate the outdoors.

Further Information

The windows in the house were replaced in 2025 and the house and garage roof has had replacement felt and battens in the last 5 years. There is also a further benefit of cavity wall insulation.

AML (Anti money laundering)

"Estate agents operating in the UK are required to conduct Anti-Money Laundering (AML) checks in compliance with the regulations set forth by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) for all property transactions. It is mandatory for both buyers and sellers to successfully complete these checks before any property transaction can proceed. Our estate agency uses Coadjute's Assured Compliance service to facilitate the AML checks. A fee will be charged for each individual AML check conducted"
