A unique and versatile property, with so much potential. This link detached four storey house has a basement plus charming and quirky accommodation which includes up to five large bedrooms. The property has been modernised, yet still retains much character from its two hundred year history. There is parking to the front, a garage and an enclosed garden to the rear. Set in the heart of Llanddulas village and so convenient for the local primary school and Post Office, the A55 Expressway and regular bus services. Abergele town centre is within three miles, with the larger towns of Colwyn Bay and Llandudno just a short drive. Viewings are recommended to appreciate what this interesting house has to offer.
