38 William Court, Bristol

William Court
Constructed in 2011 by award-winning retirement home specialists McCarthy Stone, William Court is a 'Retirement Living' development providing a quality-of-lifestyle opportunity for the over 60's and designed for independent living with the peace-of-mind provided by the day-to-day support of our excellent House Manager.

William Court is located within close proximity to both Downend and Staple Hill High Streets and the development enjoys excellent communal facilities including a homeowner's lounge, laundry room and beautiful landscaped gardens. All apartments are equipped with a 24-hour emergency call facility and sophisticated intercom system providing both a visual and verbal link to the main development entrance. There is also the excellent guest suite widely used by visiting family and friends for which a small charge per night applies. It's so easy to make new friends and to exercise both body and mind at William Court. This is a very sociable development and there are always plenty of regular activities to choose from including; fitness classes, coffee mornings, games and quiz nights, table tennis, snooker, seasonal and themed events. Whilst there is something for everyone there is certainly no obligation to participate and home owners can 'dip in and out' of activities as they wish.

The Local Area
Downend is well served by local transport links, making it an excellent location for commuters. The area has good access to the Avon Ring Road (A4174) and the M4 and M32, and the number five bus service runs regularly between Downend and Bristol city centre.

If you fancy a bite to eat, there are plenty of restaurants in Downend itself. Right in the centre on Downend Road, there's The Horseshoe, which offers classic pub fare. There's also The Tamarind, serving Indian cuisine, Mezze at the Green Dragon, which serves Greek, Spanish, Chinese, Moroccan and Mexican Mezze (small) dishes, ItalB, an Italian restaurant and a local coffee shop called The Beehive House. Alternatively, residents can head into central Bristol, where they'll find an array of restaurants to suit all tastes. If the sun's shining in Downend, there are a number of outdoor spaces to choose from. The King George V Playing Fields is the largest green space in the area, and is used by a number of local sports teams. There is also Lincombe Barn Park and Woods, as well as access to the Bristol-Bath Cycle Path, which is part of the National Cycling Network. Slightly further afield in Hambrook, there's Pirate Bay Adventure Golf, an 18 hole course that caters for parties and events.

In the centre of Downend, there's a Sainsbury's Local, as well as a range of stores, including a Co-operative pharmacy, florist and furniture show room. There are also a number of banks along Badminton Road, such as HSBC and Lloyds TSB. The areas surrounding Downend are home to a number of the major supermarkets, including a Morrisons in Fishponds, a Sainsbury's in Emerson's Green and an Iceland in Staple Hill.

Residents can, of course, travel into central Bristol and visit Cabot Circus. Downend is well served by local amenities. Downend Library is centrally located and offers all of the expected facilities, as well as a range of events including stories and songs for under-5s and coffee mornings. There are also a number of health centres, such as Christchurch Family Medical Centre and Willow Surgery.

38 William Court
Beautifully presented top floor retirement apartment with a pleasant outlook over the landscaped communal gardens.

No.38 is ideally positioned on the top floor of William Court, enjoying a lovely outlook across the beautifully maintained landscaped communal gardens. The well presented accommodation offers a comfortable and practical layout, comprising a generous living room with a modern feature fireplace, providing a welcoming space to relax and entertain. The well equipped kitchen is fitted with a range of integrated appliances, while the spacious double bedroom benefits from a useful walk-in wardrobe. The apartment is further complemented by a modern bathroom with a level access shower, providing ease and convenience.

A particularly useful large walk-in airing cupboard/store is located off the entrance hall, providing excellent additional storage. The North/West-facing aspect provides a pleasant outlook with softer natural light and the opportunity to enjoy afternoon and evening sunshine. The apartment is also conveniently situated close to the lift, making access around the development particularly easy.
