THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented bungalow set in the heart of this quiet and sought after village.

The welcoming entrance hall leads to a spacious sitting room, where French doors open directly onto the enclosed rear garden and patio area. The well-equipped kitchen features some integrated appliances and flows through to a bright and airy conservatory. Two generously sized bedrooms and a bathroom complete the accommodation.

To the front of the property is a small garden with various mature plants and shrubs and a paved path leading around to either side of the property. The rear garden is split level with a patio area adjacent to the property with small garden shed to one side. Steps from the other side lead up to a lawned area with a further garden shed and seating area.
