York House is a well-arranged, and very well-cared-for detached family home which was built around 1998. It offers versatile accommodation including a newly refitted kitchen and a delightful, mature rear garden. The property is conveniently located on Sturton Street, Cambridge, to the east of the city centre, very well-placed for access to the railway station and within catchment for St Matthews Primary School and Parkside Community College.

A partly glazed door opens into the entrance hall, which has stairs to the first floor with a storage cupboard under. Off the hall, there is a study/fourth bedroom and an ancillary shower room, which is fitted with a three-piece suite. The living accommodation comprises a snug/family room and a living/dining room, the latter including a feature gas fireplace, a glazed door to the rear garden and an opening to the kitchen. Recently refitted, the kitchen has a range of sage green fitted units with contrasting white worksurfaces, tiled splashbacks, an inset sink, plumbing for both a washing machine and a dishwasher, a wall-mounted boiler and integrated appliances including an electric oven, microwave, and electric hob with an extractor hood over. There is a rear window and a side door to the rear garden.

On the first floor, there are 3 bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefitting from a stylish ensuite with a shower cubicle, a pedestal wash basin, a WC and a heated towel rail. The family bathroom is predominantly tiled and includes a panelled bath with mains shower attachment, a pedestal wash basin, a WC and a heated towel rail.

Outside, secure, gated access (shared with no. 83) leads to the superb rear garden, which is mature, fully enclosed and measures approximately 75ft in length. It enjoys a westerly aspect and is mainly laid to lawn, with a patio seating area, well-established trees and a timber storage shed.

Location

Sturton Street is a well-regarded residential street in the popular Petersfield area of Cambridge. It is conveniently situated to the east of the city centre, close to Mill Road and well placed for access to the railway station, local shops, cafés and other amenities. The property is a 10-minute walk from Cambridge railway station with direct links to London. Mill Road, The Beehive Shopping Centre and Cambridge Retail Park are also a short walk away. The city centre is reached by foot in just 20 minutes. Schooling is excellent and the area falls within the catchment of St Matthew's Primary School, secondary provision is at Parkside Community College both of which are Ofsted rated as 'good' and 'outstanding' respectively.
