GUIDE PRICE - £250,000 - £270,000

Set within the postcard-perfect surrounds of Blackmore, this beautifully presented one-bedroom converted barn offers a rare opportunity to enjoy character, charm and contemporary comfort in an idyllic village setting.

The property immediately captivates with its smart exterior cladding — a tasteful nod to its agricultural heritage, now thoughtfully reimaged for modern living.

Step inside and the sense of space is undeniable. The impressive open-plan lounge/kitchen is defined by high ceilings and striking feature beams, creating a wonderful blend of rustic charm and contemporary style. Natural light enhances the volume of the room, while the open layout provides flexibility for both relaxed evenings and entertaining guests.

The kitchen area is sleek and well-appointed, complete with integrated fridge freezer, dishwasher and hob, ensuring clean lines and practical efficiency. Everything has been designed to maximise both style and functionality, making this an ideal home for professionals, downsizers or those seeking a refined village retreat.

The bedroom is a generous double, offering a calm and comfortable sanctuary. Fitted wardrobes provide excellent storage without compromising floor space, maintaining the room's streamlined feel.

Completing the accommodation is a modern shower room, finished in a crisp, contemporary style — practical, polished and ready to enjoy.

Externally, the property benefits from an allocated parking space — an invaluable addition in such a desirable village location — along with gas central heating for year-round comfort.

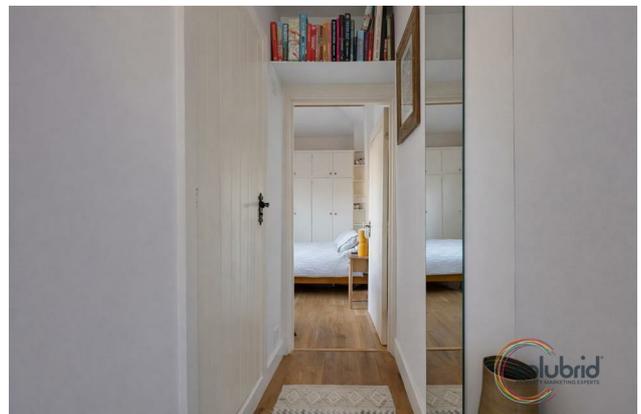

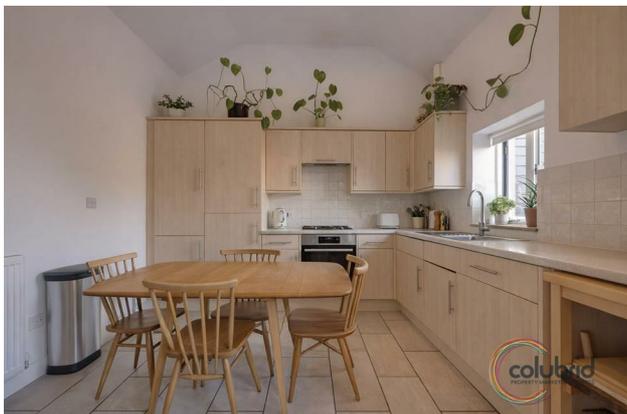

Positioned right beside the much-loved The Leather Bottle, you are perfectly placed to enjoy cosy evenings by the fire or relaxed Sunday lunches just moments from your front door.

Shared rear garden providing a peaceful outdoor space ideal for relaxing, entertaining or enjoying the tranquillity of village living.

Families and future planning are equally well catered for, with Blackmore Primary School, rated Good by Ofsted, within easy reach.

This is village living at its most appealing — characterful, low maintenance and effortlessly stylish, all set within one of Essex's most charming locations.

Blackmore is a charming, historic village in the countryside just outside Ingatestone and around 7 miles from Chelmsford. Known for its traditional village green, period homes, and strong community feel, Blackmore offers a rural lifestyle while still being well connected to London.
