The Property

A substantial Grade II Listed stone-built farmhouse together with extensive outbuildings overlooking south facing gardens and paddocks of 5.12 acres. The Chestnuts is an historic village farmhouse believed to date from the late 17th Century and until recently the heart of a working farm. The property is now in need of renovation and improvement but provides accommodation of approximately 3000 square feet offers a rare opportunity to create an enviable family home with an equestrian bias. The extensive stone outbuildings include garaging and stables with a footprint of approaching 2800 square feet lend themselves to conversion if required. In addition there is charming listed pigeoncote to the rear.

Welby

Welby is a delightful small Estate village situated approximately 4.5 miles north-east of Grantham in delightful countryside. The settlement is of considerable character combining stone built individual homes with some modern infill. The Crown & Anchor, a popular dining pub, is within easy walking distance. Grantham offers excellent road links via the A1 and trains to Kings Cross with a journey time from around 70 minutes. There are a variety of independent schools within travelling distance as well as Grantham's two well-known grammar schools, KGS and the Kings.
