EXPLORER are delighted to present to the market this beautifully presented two-bedroom home, located in a quiet and select cul-de-sac of modern properties, discreetly positioned just off Reading Road in the highly sought-after Chineham area. The property has been thoughtfully enhanced by the current owners and now features a newly fitted kitchen, a contemporary en-suite to the principal bedroom, and a new composite front door, all of which enhance both style and energy efficiency.

Additional benefits include a downstairs WC, allocated parking, attractive solid oak flooring, and a southerly facing rear garden that is private and non-overlooked.
