Property Description

A charming Grade II listed semi-detached home, The Old Post Office dates back circa 300 years and has been thoughtfully modernised over recent years blending period features with contemporary enhancements. The skilfully converted loft space adds further appeal and versatile living space to this delightful property. The accommodation in further detail comprises:-

To the ground floor, entering through a generous hardwood front door with a fanlight above, the entrance porch leads to a useful cloaks area with internal door to the lounge. The room's focal point is the stunning Inglenook fireplace, featuring an impressive oak mantle, exposed brickwork, stone hearth with woodburning stove. A sliding sash window to the front elevation adds character, with a radiator beneath. A large opening leads into the rear lobby, where a glazed door opens to the beautifully presented rear garden. The original return staircase ascends from the inner hallway to the first floor, with a rear facing window, with convenient understairs storage.

The dining room is light filled having windows to the front and side elevations, oak flooring and a feature fireplace. The breakfast kitchen is fitted with "Shaker style" units and integrated appliances including a Rangemaster cooker with induction hob, dishwasher, washing machine, and space for a fridge/freezer. The kitchen features oak worktops, a Belfast sink and views over the rear garden. There is a practical breakfast bar and comfortable space for breakfast table and chairs next to a woodburning stove. A side lobby offers storage and houses the oil-fired boiler, a stable door leads to the rear garden.

On the first floor, exposed wall and ceiling timbers add character, window reveals a pleasant view over the rear garden. There are two good sized double bedrooms, the principal benefits from an ensuite bathroom and built-in recessed shelved cupboard together with exposed brick wall, feature fireplace, large ceiling timbers and a front facing window. Bedroom two is served by a generous house bathroom and a home office area is also located on this floor, with a return staircase leading to the second floor.

The second floor offers two further bedrooms, both with vaulted ceilings and exposed timbers, built in eaves storage and cupboards. Bedroom two has roof windows and delightful views over the rear garden and countryside beyond. This bedroom also includes built-in storage and an ensuite shower room.

To the outside, the property benefits from driveway parking, extending down the side to a detached single garage with a manual up and over door, light and power. The front garden is enclosed by a rustic brick wall, featuring a neat lawn with flower borders and a path leading to the front entrance. The standout feature, however, is the beautiful cottage style rear garden, generous in size and boasting well stocked borders, mature hedging and trees to give privacy with a designated seating area at the head of the garden for relaxation and outdoor dining.
