Situated in the sought-after area of Sunningdale on the edge of Grantham, this attractive semi-detached property offers an ideal setting for family living. The home is conveniently positioned near the entrance to the National Trust's Belton House estate, with plenty of nearby open spaces and scenic routes perfect for walking dogs and enjoying the outdoors.

The property features a private driveway and an enclosed rear garden, and the interior is well maintained and ready to move into. Accommodation includes a comfortable living room, a spacious kitchen with dining area, three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

Everyday amenities are within easy reach, including a local shop, fish and chip takeaway and a primary school. Grantham town centre is only a short journey away and provides a wide selection of supermarkets, eateries, public houses and leisure options such as the Mere's Leisure Centre, football stadium and cinema. The town also benefits from multiple parks, a strong choice of primary and secondary schools, and a mainline railway station offering direct services to major towns and cities.

Nearby attractions include Belvoir Castle, the historic Angel and Royal Hotel, and the popular Rutland Water, all adding to the appeal of this well-located home.
