what the owners will miss

This house has a lovely airy feel to it which I love. The gardens have been a joy to create with my parents help. The location is great with everything you may need close by. I have been very lucky to have lovely neighbours even those across the lane by the garage. Whoever buys this house, will certainly be blessed.

just a thought...

Behind this modest exterior lies a substantial and well presented family home offering sizeable accommodation over three levels with gardens, garage and parking, all at a competitive price.
