

High Green, Great Moulton

Guide Price £475,000-£500,000

4 1 3

This delightful 17th century Norfolk Long House is set upon a generous third of an acre plot and offers an appealing blend of period character and charm within. The property boasts a wealth of original features, including exposed beams, open fireplaces and a quaint secret study hidden behind a bookcase! The ground floor accommodation includes two spacious sitting rooms, each with its own open fireplace, a generous farmhouse kitchen complete with AGA and a separate utility room, boot room and a wc provides ample space for country living needs. Upstairs, you'll find four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom plus an additional wc.

Key Features

- GUIDE PRICE £475,000 - £500,000
- No onward chain
- Approx third of an acre plot
- Freehold
- Council Tax Band F
- A further portion of land approx. 0.5 acre is available by separate negotiation if required
- Character & charm
- Outbuildings
- EPC Rating F
- Oil heating & Private Drainage

