A spacious three-bedroom detached home in the sought-after village of Aughton, offering versatile living across three floors, a large private garden, off-street parking, and a single garage. The heart of the home is a generous L-shaped kitchen/dining room, perfect for family meals and entertaining, alongside a cosy living room. A first-floor sitting room and sun-filled conservatory add flexible living space, while the second floor hosts three bedrooms, including a principal with ensuite. The large garden features a flagged patio leading up to a lawn, bordered by mature plants and shrubs, creating a private outdoor retreat. Well cared for but in need of modernisation, this home offers excellent potential to create a bespoke family residence.
