Bedrooms: 1 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 1

Guide Price £450,000–£490,000.

A bright one-bedroom apartment with a private west-facing balcony, set on the first floor of Atrium Apartments.

Extending to approximately 552 sq ft, the apartment is centred around an open-plan kitchen and reception room, with full-height doors opening directly onto the balcony. Its west-facing position makes this a particularly enjoyable extension of the living space during the afternoon and evening.

The bedroom is a comfortable double with fitted wardrobes, complemented by a notably spacious bathroom. The apartment also benefits from hardwood flooring, underfloor heating and built-in central air filtration throughout. Lift access, bike storage and a concierge service add to the ease of everyday living.

Atrium Apartments is well placed for Portobello Road, Golborne Road and the wider Notting Hill area, with an excellent selection of independent cafés, restaurants, shops and markets nearby. The Grand Union Canal is also close at hand, providing an attractive walking route towards Little Venice.

Ladbroke Grove Underground station provides convenient access to the Circle and Hammersmith & City lines, while a bus stop directly outside the development offers routes towards Notting Hill Gate, White City, Chiswick, South Kensington and Knightsbridge. Kensal Rise Overground station and the independent shops and cafés of Chamberlayne Road are approximately a 15-minute walk away. The apartment is also well positioned for access to Heathrow Airport.
